

What is Astigmatism?

Many people have astigmatism—a subtle difference in the shape of the cornea.

Uncorrected astigmatism

Corrected astigmatism

- Round cornea (clear front part of the eye)
- Light rays passing through focus evenly

- Oval cornea
- Shape prevents light from focusing correctly. The result? Slightly blurred vision.